

I trust that Cumberland Council will carefully consider the traffic issues, location of site and quality of road networks and its adverse effects on the residents and will take the necessary steps to address the concerns raised by residents like me.

I thank you for your attention to this matter. And look forward to a prompt response outlining the actions being taken in response to our objections.

Yours sincerely,