To whom it may concern,

[REDACTED] I do not speak on the phone. All correspondence is to go to my email address with no exception.

I strongly object to the organic waste transfer station proposed for 109A Church Street, Lidcombe for the following reasons:

1. The disgusting stench it WILL emit - I've been to other organic waste transfer stations and the entire surrounding area stinks. I don't want the air I breathe to smell of foul decomposing waste.
2. The damage it will do to the air quality. The breakdown of organic waste will emit large amounts of methane and sulfur compounds that will NOT be contained or captured. I demand that my air quality be upheld at the current levels or better and my health not threatened by the addition of methane and other gases released by the breakdown of organic waste.
3. This is a residential neighbourhood. If you want to make a rubbish tip make it somewhere industrial like Silverwater, Rose Hill or the industrial side of Rookwood where there's only road traffic and dead people.
4. Lidcombe is a growing urban area with increasing property values. Don't rip-off residents by devaluing their properties with a stinking rubbish tip right near their houses. Any drop in property values caused by the rubbish tip going ahead will be rigorously pursued legally by the residents of Lidcombe. I will make sure if this.
5. Lidcombe is currently a traffic bottleneck. We have enormous amounts of traffic going through Lidcombe due to the funnelling effect of being cornered between Parramatta Road, Centenary Drive & Rookwood Necropolis. The small roads are already gridlocked in peak hours and all day every weekend. We don't need more trucks, more noise and more air pollution from increased heavy vehicle traffic.

Drop the proposed rubbish tip or watch the mayor be thrown out at the next local election.
