Hello,

I am writing to express my strong opposition to the proposed organic transfer station at 109A Church Street Lidcombe. I've lived in _____ for around 7 years, where I raised my 9-year-old kid in peace and quiet. I am proud to live in Lidcombe, where my family's safety and well-being are of the utmost importance.

However, this potential organic transfer station will disrupt our peaceful family life in Lidcombe and threaten the safety of my 9-year-old kid.

I've been living in Australia for over 20 years and have never witnessed anything like this. This development plan, in my opinion, does not reflect Australia's fundamental value - compassion.

I am confident that the council will make the right decision.
